JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

1867

THE BULL

1964

foreword

The senior class of 1964 has shared four years of happiness within the gates of Johnson C. Smith University. As they leave we realize that they will have cherished thoughts and memories of days spent at Johnson C. Smith University. Realizing this, we, the Bull Staff, have made it our purpose to unfold the events of their year as seniors. The story of that year is revealed in the words and pictures of this book.

With this purpose in mind the Bull Staff worked diligently and is now happy and proud to present the 1964 BULL. Every effort has been put forth to make this the best BULL yet. May you enjoy it.

Smith

University

When school first begins, the students are usually idle and the campus is quiet.

Where

Then comes registration and the bookstore line. Mrs. Law, the bookstore manager, is kept busy selling books to thousands of students like this one.

Classes are part of our regular routine.

We Spent

At the homecoming dance classes are forgotten.

Our Word

erful Year

...building our character and strengthening lives with...

Study

Through study we have learned that which is essential for effective participation in our society. We have adapted ourselves to the vast amount of knowledge to the extent that our lives have been motivated to perform higher endeavors. Study has provided us with knowledge enabling us to go out into the world to aid in developing the lives of others to their fullest potentials.

Guidance

In a new and purposeful period of intellectual growth, we have been aided by guidance in our adjustment to the many expectations of a changing society and world.

Sincerity of Purpose

Through the years our ultimate objective has remained before us — to excel. Thinking over the past, the road over which we have at last ascended, we must consider the remaining portion. As we consider this remaining portion, we must continue to cling, as previously, to success with earnestly, ingenuity and sincerity.

Prayer

"God give us strength that we may fulfill our duties to their highest esteem. Give us faith that we may as future leaders guide those with whom we may come in contact. May we all accomplish the endeavors which we have set out to fulfill. Amen."

It is prayer which has aided us in achieving progress through our past years here at Johnson C. Smith University. May God forever be with us that we may use our talents to blossom into the future of tomorrow.

DEDICATION ...

MRS. INEZ MOORE PARKER

There is a brief silence and then the class begins. Immediately the students are captured by the deep, mellow tone of Mrs. Parker's voice as she weaves her intellectual spell. Whether it be Victorian, Romantic or Neo-Classic, the effect is the same—literature brought to life!

Hers is a devotion the steadfastness of which is returned in full measure by all who have come to know her as an instructor and friend.

Hers is a love the warmth of which may be felt by anyone who...

attends one of her classes . . .

watches her work in the garden or . . .

visits her in the home.

The President Speaks

I am indeed pleased to extend my personal congratulations to the seniors for the diligence and persistence with which they have pursued their intellectual and cultural objectives in this educational enterprise. Johnson C. Smith University seeks to train free men and women for life and living in a free society. It seeks to prepare men and women to take their places in that society, possessed of a high degree of civic consciousness, able to respond to the challenges of leadership, and equipped to lead the Good Life. Moreover, Johnson C. Smith University seeks to remain a place, an atmosphere and a tradition in Christian higher education.

Let us therefore in our ninety-seventh year renew our pledge to grow stronger in all of our endeavors.

In Memoriam

We dedicate this page in memory of two fine classmates who began this journey with us but, because of God's calling, were unable to complete it.

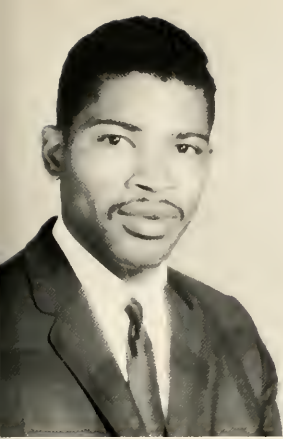

Vermelle Sarter

William Foster

We lost a friend long years ago
Awhile our paths together lay,
And we were happy by the way
Until we parted — years ago.
From out each other's lives we passed;
Each went his way, but yet, at last,
Or here, or in eternity,
God will give back our friend to us.

Homecoming is the time of luxurious festivities enjoyed by all. The crowning of Miss Johnson C. Smith University, always radiant with her beauty and glorious in her reign, is colorful and exciting. The Alumni are seen as they return to their beloved and never forgotten alma mater. Of course, the football game is always exciting as the Golden Bulls play vigourously and victoriously. We can never overlook the Homecoming dance when all the glory of Homecoming is brought to light in fellowship. As Homecoming draws to a close one sees the many instructors, students, alumni, and friends as they congregate to worship and give thanks to God.

Certainly, we can never forget the greatest event of the year . . .

The Homecoming Speaker

The Reverend Edgar W. Ward, pastor of the Grace United Presbyterian Church, Chicago, Illinois, was the Homecoming Worship speaker.

Reverend Ward was graduated from the University in 1947 and from the Theological Seminary in 1950. He has been minister of the Garce Church since 1960. Before accepting the church in Chicago, Reverend Ward was pastor of the Cherry Hill Community United Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

UNIVERSITY BAND

THE UNIVERSITY CHOIR

The University Choir, under the direction of Christopher W. Kemp, is composed of students from all departments of the institution. Most of them have had little or no musical training prior to coming to the University.

As a result of extensive trips and an album of sacred music, they have been the recipients of a national honor. They have been chosen as the official broadcasting choir of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. for 1964. On January 10, Dr. Richard R. Gilbert, executive director of radio and television of the United Presbyterian Church, presented to President Perry and Mr. Kemp.

Each Sunday morning the melodious tones of the University Choir swell within the University Church sending out messages of joy.

A last glance at the Seniors ...

There were times when we studied and Times when we relaxed ...

... and so we depart looking toward the future yet remembering our joyous years of study, pleasure and friendship spent here at Johnson C. Smith University. We shall remember our freshman, sophomore and junior years but we shall never forget our magnificent days as Seniors. We shall always remember and cherish that wonderful year.
